

YOUNG CONSTITUENT, Janice Barenz, 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barenz, Mokena, was one of several hundred who turned out to meet Gov. William G. Stratton, when he arrived last Friday afternoon via helicopter on a campaign swing thru Will county. When this picture was taken Janice apparently was more interested in watching those rotating blades atop the helicopter than she was meeting a governor. Just behind her is her grandfather, Harold Cooper, a Republican committeeman of Mokena, and at the extreme left is her mother, Mrs. Barenz. (Marvin Smith photo)

Farm Progress Show At Joliet Draws Huge Crowds

About 250,000 persons are expected to attend the Farm Progress Show which started yesterday and will run today and tomorrow on the Donald Baltz farm, located seven miles west of Joliet on route 52. The show is said to be the largest of its kind in the country and this is its first time in this area.

For the show, a 50 acre tent city has been built. In the heart of the tent city is a modern seven-room model home, machine shed, granary, silo, cattle and hog-feeding centers. Some 200 acres of farm crops surrounding the tent city will be either on display or under harvest.

Primarily an educational event, the show is designed to allow commercial firms to display the latest in equipment and farm products to its customers. It is being sponsored by a national farm magazine.

Besides from the machinery display there will be a style show for the ladies in the afternoon and evening of the three day event. The models are officers of the executive board of the Will County Home Bureau.

Special details of Illinois State Police will handle the traffic to and from the show during the hours of operation, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.

273 Youngsters Turn Out For Bike Tests At Mokena

BY JACQUIE GRAINEY

Altho the bicycle tests were not scheduled to start until 2 p.m. last Saturday, there were over 100 children waiting at the Carpenter Street school playground at 1 o'clock. Because of this registrations were started a little early. When the last rider completed the test he brought the total of registered bicycle riders to 273.

There were more children wanting to take the test than was expected and the routine was a little mixed-up at first because of this. First they started to register all the children, five at a time, and then gave the test to the first five and the next five and so on, but this wasn't working too well because the children were completing the test faster than the ladies at the desk could do the paper work. They tried, putting five riders thru the test and filling out all the forms after they finished. This didn't help much either. While this was going on the boys and girls were all bunched in a group with their bikes and getting more restless by the minute.

The chief of police, Jim Smetana, tried to keep them back from the registering table but it was very difficult. The minute he turned his back the children moved right back where they started.

Phil Hacker, the police commissioner, who was in charge of the program, decided to get another table and set-up a system where the children would register at one table, take their test and go to the second table to fill out the final papers.

Sam Caracci put the license sticker on the back fender of the bikes. There were only 250 licenses, so Mr. Hacker had to order additional licenses for the last 23 to pass the tests. He said they will be ready in about 10 days for those that didn't receive them.

Plan New Post Offices For New Lenox, Frankfort

New Lenox and Frankfort are slated to have new post offices next year.

Sites have been selected in both communities. In New Lenox the lot, 64 by 143 feet, is located on the east side of S. Cedar street, 266 feet south of U.S. 30, next to the bowling lanes. It is owned by Harvey Frick from the estate of the late Mrs. Octavia Pugh.

The Frankfort site is at the northwest corner of Oak and Nebraska streets. It is owned by Leroy Mager, who purchased it from Mrs. Margaret Koerner.

Postal authorities have approved the site and have an option on same but are awaiting action by the village board on the zoning classification before advertising for bids.

Mokena has a new postoffice in the building stage but progress has been slow.

Announcement that New Lenox and Frankfort are to have new post offices was made by Congressman Noah Mason, of the 15th district (which includes Will county) on information given out by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield.

The new offices will be constructed under the postoffice department's commercial leasing program, Mason explained.

According to Postmaster Lester E. Brown, of New Lenox, bidding forms, specifications and other pertinent data will be available to prospective bidders in about six weeks, at which time the postoffice department will advertise for bids.

"The site option," Brown explained, "will be transferred to the successful bidder, who will purchase the land and then construct the building to specifications of the postoffice department. The building then will be leased to the department on a long-term basis, with lease renewal options up to 20 years."

The new postoffice at New Lenox will contain about 2,300 square feet of floor space, plus a loading platform and adequate parking and truck maneuvering areas. The Frankfort postoffice is expected to be about the same size.

Since the buildings remain under private ownership there is no loss of taxes on local level. The federal government escapes heavy capital outlay by keeping out of the construction field since its expenditures are limited substantially to furniture and equipment. Summerfield has indicated the need of replacing some 12,000 postoffices because of lack of space and obsolescence. There were approximately 1,600 new postoffices to be built in 1960 on the lease plan.

The new postoffice at Orland Park was built under this program.

Frankfort Fights Speed With Radar

The Frankfort police department has a new radar timer which will be enlisted to curb speeding and reckless driving in the village.

Purchase of the device was discussed at the meeting of the village board Monday night and the police committee was instructed to talk with the salesman Tuesday morning and with authority to act.

The machine has a list price of $1,148. It can be mounted in the front seat of a squad car and can be turned in a complete circle so that it can get a clock on a car coming from any direction. It also has a button the operator can press which stops the needle at the speed the car is traveling.

Frankfort has a radar timer but it is equipped with long cables which must be laid across the pavement. Moving men takes time and when a police department has but one squad, the reeling in of cable and storing of equipment could consume valuable time if the car were needed in an emergency, it was pointed out.

The new timer is made by a Decatur firm, Muni-Kuip Corp. It was put in the squad car on a trial basis last Thursday and between then and Monday night Chief of Police Frank Simon had issued 25 tickets for speeding.

Whether the village could afford to buy the radar timer now was the principal point discussed Monday night. Board members wanted to make clear that they would make the purchase as a deterrent to speeding and there was no intention of buying it as a producer of revenue.

Frankfort will not become a speed trap, they said.

The other radar machine will be sold, it was said.

In addition to the arrest of the speeders alluded to above Chief Simon also made seven arrests for stop sign violations between Thursday and Monday; one for traveling too fast for conditions; one for a noisy muffler and two for having alcoholic beverages open in their cars. One of these was Richard T. Vincent, 19, of 9336 S. Spaulding, Evergreen Park, and the other was Charles Roberts, 24, 6550 W. 79th, Oak Lawn. Roberts had an open bottle of beer in his car, Simon said, and Roberts had a flask of gin in the glove compartment. Roberts also was charged with driving 35 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone.

Wedding Trip Delayed When Car Hits Truck

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Kelsey, who were married Saturday (Sept. 17) at Tinley Park, were delayed in beginning their wedding trip.

They were involved in an auto crash Saturday night to Orland Park from Joliet where their wedding reception had been held in the home of friends.

The fog was thick and Mr. Kelsey did not see a disabled truck on 80th ave. near Orland Park until too late to avoid striking it. The bride was bruised and shaken but the bridegroom uninjured.

The front of their car, however, was bashed in so their wedding trip to northern Wisconsin was delayed.

Tax Hikes Beaten, L-W Board Seeks Ways To Cut Expenses

The proposed tax increases for Lincoln-Way high school district were voted down last Saturday, Sept. 17. It was the second time this year that the proposals met defeat.

In Saturday's special election the proposition to increase the educational tax fund rate from 86 to 99 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation lost by 181 votes, 1,016 to 835.

The second proposal, to increase the transportation tax from two cents to five cents, lost by 213 votes, 1,036 to 823.

The high school board is meeting tonight to discuss means of further paring expenditures in an endeavor to meet increasing demands.

While no action has been taken and no official action has gone out there are reports that the board will give teachers salaries first priority on any funds available. There is talk, unofficially, that if and when the funds allocated for bus transportation are expended the program will be drastically cut or abandoned.

Whether to discontinue the adult education program and curtail the extra-curricular use of the school plant are among the questions that the board is expected to take up at its meeting tonight.

The student drivers' course is expected to continue, it was said, because it does not require any of the money raised thru local taxes. The athletic program is said to be paying more of its own way.

The big question is the salary question, it was said. The board hopes valuations will increase sufficiently so more revenue will be forthcoming before next year's contracts come up. Lincoln-Way's salary schedule is rated as the lowest in any high school in the region.

The board would have some $30,000 to meet the district's needs, a spokesman said, if all the delinquent taxes could be collected.

The vote Saturday was larger than the vote last April and the only section in which the proposals carried was in Lincoln Estates. There the vote was 48 in favor of the educational tax fund hike and 34 no; on increasing the transportation tax the vote was 44 yes; and 34 no.

New Lenox gave the propositions a sound beating. On the education tax there were 455 votes against it and 335 for it; on the transport tax, 456 voted no and 334 voted yes.

In Mokena there were 223 votes against the education tax and 194 for it; on transportation there were 233 noes and 191 yes votes.

In Frankfort 193 voted against the education tax and 176 votes for it; on transportation the vote was 193 noes and 176 yes.

At Manhattan there were 117 votes against the education tax and 82 for it; 120 against the transport tax hike and 78 for it.

According to talk heard around the polls Saturday taxes are too high.

Break Ground Tomorrow For Convent At St. Mary's

Ground-breaking for the new convent for St. Mary's parish, Mokena, is scheduled for tomorrow (Sept. 23). The ceremony is to begin at 7 o'clock, it was announced by the pastor, the Rev. Cecil Koop, O. F. M.

Work on the structure is to begin immediately. The general contract was awarded by Bishop Martin D. McNamara to Ervin Friant, Mokena. Naal Plumbing and Heating Joliet, has the plumbing and heating contract and the electrical work is to be done by Meyerhoff Electric, also of Joliet. Vitzhum and Kill, of Chicago, are the architects.

The new building is to be of bi-level construction with the exterior brick matching that used in the walls of the church.

The convent is to be erected on a 10-acre parcel of land adjacent to the church and school on 195th street. It will be a T-shape structure, 60 by 75 feet in dimension, containing nine bedrooms, chapel, dining room, kitchen, baths and study.

The bedrooms will be above an English type basement. The home is being built to accommodate 11 nuns; at present five sisters are serving St. Mary's parish and are residing on Wolf road, next door to the Social Center.

St. Mary's parish has been growing steadily and in the past five years, under the leadership of Father Cecil, a new church and school have been built and work is to be started on a home for the sisters who serve the parish.

The public as well as members of the parish, are invited to the ground-breaking ceremony tomorrow night.

Village Officials To Attend State Convention

Six Village officials of Frankfort will attend the Illinois Municipal League convention at Springfield Oct. 1, 2, 3, and 4.

Because they will be away Oct. 3 the board meeting scheduled for that night will be held on Tuesday night, Oct. 4.

Those who will attend the convention are Mayor George Sangmeister and Trustees Ted Massey, Glenn Warning, Lynn Kohlhaugen and Clyde Reils and Village Clerk Walter Pfaff.

Magistrate John Balaz presiding was a busy place last Thursday Sept. 15. Six motorists paid fines, another asked for a jury trial and a tavern keeper paid the maximum penalty for violation of the closing hour ordinance.

Don Sands operator of Sands Tavern at Wolf and LaPorte Roads Mokena entered a plea of guilty to charges of serving customers after 3 a.m. Sunday Sept. 11. He paid $200 and $10 cost.

Theodore N. Walmer, Frankfort, was charged six dollars fine and four dollars cost for a stop sign violation. Wilton E. Hasse, Oak Forest was reprimanded by Judge Balaz for traveling 30 miles per hour in a 20 mile school zone and fined $10 and $5 cost.

Harold Maschmeyer, 9526 Rosewood Lane, Mokena William Logan, Wayne Michigan, and Jack H. French, Joliet were fined $3 and $2 cost for illegal parking. Additional charges for operating a commercial vehicle without a chauffeurs license against French was continued until Sept. 22.

Darwin K. DeCamp, Mokena was fined $10 and $5 cost for improper display of license plates. When it was found that he was unable to pay, he was given until Sept. 22 to produce the money or go to jail.

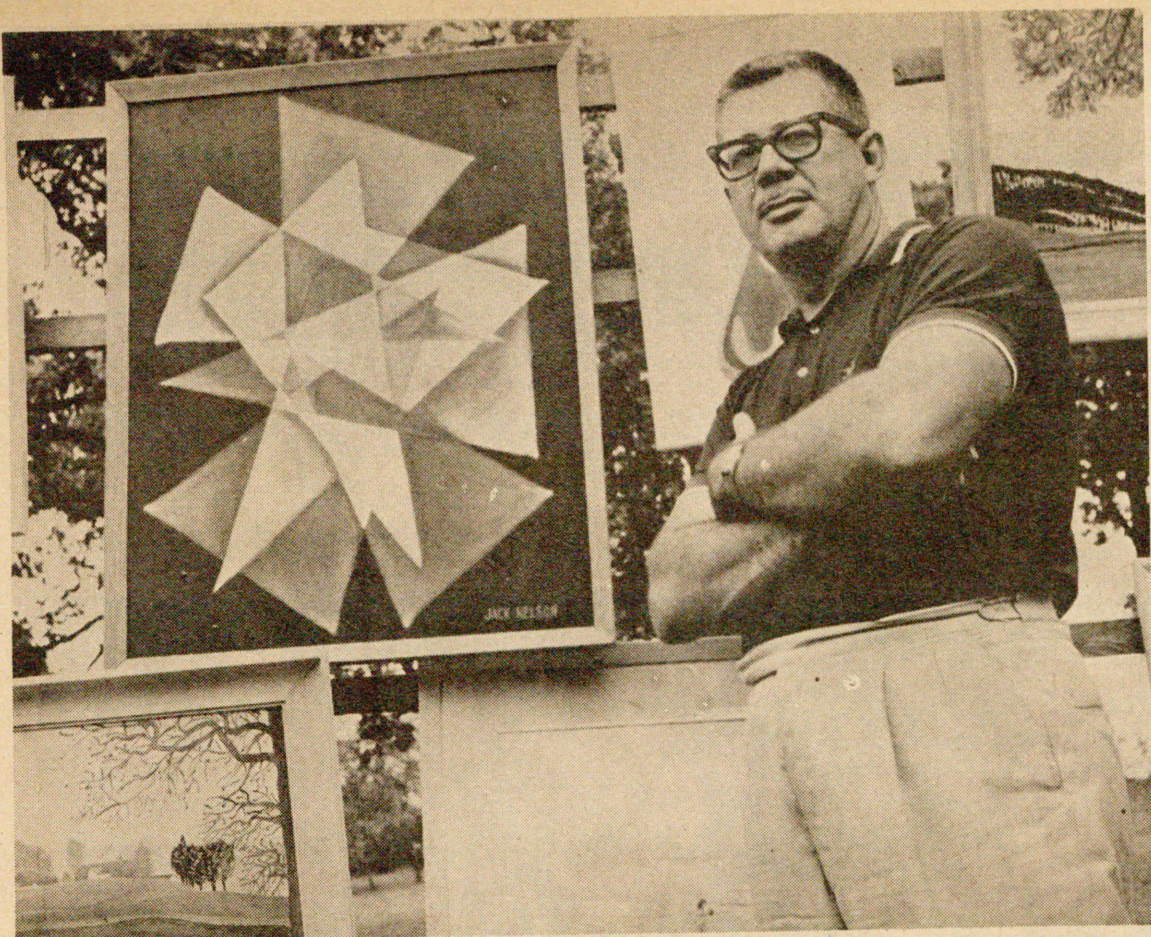

Eugene D. Moroit, New Lenox asked for a jury trial on speeding charges. His case was set for Sept. 29.

BAND TO BROADCAST The Lincoln-Way high school band is to broadcast several selections over radio station WJOL next Wednesday (Sept. 27) on the Golden Hour of Listening program, between 10 and 10:24 p.m. Gene Klein, of Manhattan, student president of the band, is to be interviewed in the course of the program.

LINING UP BIKE RIDERS for tests is no small chore when there are 273 boys and girls involved. It was not too difficult to get a picture--just fall back and shoot, but Mokena Police Chief James Smetana had more of a job to do than that. The kids were willing to follow orders but with 273 of them it was not surprising to find some confusion. They displayed their skills in stopping, turning and other tests to demonstrate control over their bicycles. Besides the youngsters there were a couple of hundred adult spectators on the Carpenter Street school grounds. More kids turned out that those in charge expected. Planning for 200 they ordered 250 licenses. New Police Commissioner Phil Hacker has ordered more licenses. The NEWS-BULLETIN participated in the affair. (M. Smith photo)

Snakeroot, Green And Poisonous

Poisonous white snakeroot remains green after pastures become dry and short.

The plants then become tempting to grazing animals that avoid them when pastures are lush, says Dr. R. P. Link, University of Illinois veterinarian. Tempting, and poisonous to all animals, white snakeroot is one of the most dangerous poisonous plants livestock operators must cope with in the fall.

The plant can be spotted easily. It is slender and erect, growing from one to five feet high. The leaves, which grow opposite each other, are three to five inches long. They are oval, tapering to a slight point, and have sharp-toothed edges. When in bloom, white snakeroot has 8 to 30 small white flowers. It grows most commonly in the damp, rich soil of woods, in shady ravines and along streams.

Cattle and other grazing animals usually eat only a little of the poisonous plant at a time, becoming poisoned gradually. They may not show signs of sickness for some time. Eventually, however, they become listless and inactive.

Farmers can recognize this poisoning by the trembling in an animal's legs and muzzle. As the poisoning progresses, the affected animal loses its appetite and becomes so weak that it cannot stand. A poisoned cow grinds its teeth and has fetid breath. It breathes hard and fast, with a characteristic grunt as it inhales.

While there is no specific treatment for this poisoning, Dr. Link recommends milking lactating animals frequently to help eliminate the toxic agent. Veterinarians can give treatment to keep affected animals alive until the agent is eliminated.

Home Of James Burnforth Destroyed By Hurricane

BY ELIZABETH ANDERSON

Rally Day at Homer Sunday School will be observed on Sunday Sept. 25 at 9:30 a.m. This is the day when it is hoped our vacationing pupils return for the fall season and continue regularly each Sunday. It is also Promotion Day when those who are of the right age are moved into the next class. The teachers met Wednesday evening at the parsonage to make plans for this special day.

There is still a chance for all neighborhood cooks to get their best recipes into the King's Daughters' cook-book. The committee is anxious to have as many names of interested women as possible, represented by one or more of their best recipes. Send them to Mrs. James Elvig or Mrs. Donald Aspel.

Plans are progressing for the Northwest Homer Fire Auxiliary Smorgasbord which will be held at the Fire Barn on 143rd St. on Saturday, Sept. 24, beginning at 5 p.m. Tickets may be purchased from members or at the door.

The monthly meeting of the Missionary Society will be held at Homer Church on Thursday, Sept. 29, at 1 o'clock. Plans will be completed that day for the society's participation in the auction at the Otto Konow farm on Oct. 1, and for the annual fall supper and bazaar to be at the church on Oct. 13.

Many Homer people attended the Marley Church supper last Thursday evening when approximately 600 people were served in the newly remodeled dining room.

Jos. Brankey of North Carolina and George Brankey of New York City, flew here last week to attend their father's funeral.

Mrs. N. L. Welter is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Donahue, following a paralytic stroke which she suffered about two weeks ago.

George R. Bump is a patient in Michael Reese Hospital where he underwent surgery for cataract last Monday.

Otto Konow, Sr., who has been hospitalized for medical treatment at St. Joseph's hospital for two weeks, is about ready to return to his home on E. Division St.

The James Burnforth family lost all of their household possessions when hurricane Donna demolished the house in which they were living in Florida. They had recently moved to this new location near the shore from an upstairs apartment farther inland which was unhurt by the storm.

Larry White and Don Cagwin, who were enroute to Florida with Jack Reiter's furniture at the time Donna struck there, fortunately did not reach the area until the storm was passed.

Mrs. John W. Reiter of Bruce Rd., accompanied by Mrs. Tess Markiewicz of Lockport, left for Lakeland, Fla. Saturday morning to take Mrs. Jack Reiter and children to their new home there.

Larry Burnworth who has been with the Marines for more than four years, is on his way home from Japan. He will receive his discharge after arriving in the States.

About 30 Homer church people will take turns as hosts in the G.B.H. model home which is on display at the Farm Progress Show west of Joliet this week. Jerome Paddock has a Farm Implement display there and Robert Shepherd, Sr. is showing his seed corn project. Many local people are assisting with the Soft Drink concession, the profits from which are to go to the Francis 4-H Field at New Lenox.

Mrs. Earl Burnworth, Bruce Rd., attended a bridal shower at Chaney school Sunday afternoon, Sept. 11, in honor of Miss Shirley Restaino of Crest Hill who, on Oct. 15, will marry Gerald Smith of Lockport.

Mr. Smith is a former Marine and his mother, Mrs. Everett Smith, is the president of the local Auxiliary. The hostesses who are fellow members of the Auxiliary, were Mrs. Cora Snelder of Joliet, Mrs. Leo Smith of Lockport, and Misses Mary Etta Betchel and Muriel Jacobsen of Lemont.

The Homer Fire Auxiliary conducted a successful rummage sale in Joliet Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reiter, 159th and Parker Rd. are the parents of a daughter, born Sept. 1, in St. Joseph's hospital, the second little girl in the family.

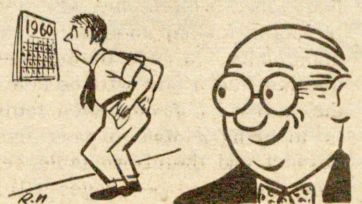

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Blackburn, 143rd and King, welcomed a new son at Silver Cross Hospital Sept. 14.

Carolyn Drewes of Lockport was the guest of her friend, Dianne Moravec, last weekend.

It has been decided to hold a registration day for all unregistered voters on Sept. 24 from 12 noon, to 9 p.m. There will be three polling places available to Homer twp. voters--the Homer Town Hall, the Northwest Homer Fire Barn on 143rd St. and Pole's Barber Shop on Rte. 4-A.

Guests of note at the Smorgasbord sponsored by the local Marine Corps League Auxiliary Thursday evening at St. Dennis Hall, Lockport, were State Commandant Richard Olson of Chicago; Richard Boyndt, Commandant of the Joliet Memorial League, and Commandant-Elect Kendall Young of Joliet. More than 200 guests attended the supper and bazaar. Mrs. Earl Burnworth, Bruce Rd., served on the planning committee for the event.

The installation of officers of the local Marine Corps, and Auxiliary will be held Saturday, Oct. 29. Commandant Olson will install the League officers and the Auxiliary officers will be installed by State Dept. president, Mrs. Pauline Jones, of Mt. Vernon, Ill. Among those installed at that time will be Mr. Young and also Miss Muriel Jacobson, of Lemont who has been chosen as president of the local Auxiliary for 1960-61.

Green Garden

Unit School Dist. Sells 2 Buildings At Auction

MRS. KATHARINE HEISNER

Tel. Frankfort 5187

Two one-room schools in the Peotone community unit district, one in Green Garden, the other in Wilton township, were sold at auction last Saturday. They had been offered once before but the price was such that the Will county board of school trustees rejected the bids.

At the sale the Green Garden school sold for $400 to Lloyd Koenning, Peotone; the other went to Wayne Baird, also of Peotone, for $310. The price included the plumbing and heating fixtures. Each building had an oil-fired furnace and a large electric hot water heater.

The sites were not a part of the purchase and the buildings must be moved or torn down.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smit and family attended the wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rehberg at the St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Monee, last Saturday evening. Mrs. Rehberg is the former Karen Silcox daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Silcox and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rehberg both of Monee.

The Pinochle club met at the home of Mrs. Carl Toepper, Wednesday afternoon. Lunch was served following the games.

The Universities Bond Issue

If you have not already received a brochure covering the "University Bond Issue" ballot, which will be handed on to all Illinois voters in the general election Nov. 8, you likely will soon.

The proposal will be presented to the voters on a separate ballot. If it carries the state will be empowered to issue $195-million of bonds to be used in making permanent improvements at colleges and universities it owns. Interest, according to the proposition, is not to exceed 4%.

Under the Illinois constitution a state bond issue must be backed by a specific tax. In this instance the general assembly has pledged the state property tax but according to proponents of the bond issue such pledge is given to comply with the law and no property tax need be imposed. The interest and principal can be paid out of general revenue, it is stated, without any increase in taxes. The state has not imposed a tax on real estate for many years and does not intend to do so now, it is said.

It is explained that the maximum interest rate on the $195-million would be $12,500,000 a year which is approximately the amount the state has expended annually for the past five years to the six state universities for capital improvements without any tax increase.

According to those who have made a study of the situation there were 185,000 college students in Illinois in 1959 and by 1969 the number is expected to reach 300,000. There aren't enough buildings to house such a number of students and if something is going to be done to meet the problem a building program must be started by 1961. If work is started next year some of the buildings will be ready by 1963 and it is in 1963 and 1964 that the babies born in 1946 and 1947 -- years when the birth rate was spiraling -- will begin their college careers.

Those who have studied the problem say the state is unable to follow a pay-as-you-go plan at this time, pointing out that the state is no different than most persons who buy homes. Most persons who buy houses simply don't have the cash to pay for them in one lump. Hence, mortgages.

The bond issue for defraying cost of a similar program in the six state universities failed to get enough votes when it was submitted to the voters in 1958.

A simple majority is not sufficient. To pass the proposal must be approved by a majority of the persons voting for members of the general assembly. Thus, a person who fails to vote on the bond issue votes against it.

The bond issue has been endorsed by the governor, the general assembly, and a large number of business, labor, educational, political and other organizations.

"If the voters approve the Universities Bond Issue in November," the brochure concludes, "the state universities can face the challenges and responsibilities of the future with hope and vigor."

Grandma Moses--Anna Mary Robertson Moses if one is taking the long way around--now hailed as a great U.S. primitive painter, has earned fame and fashion with her brush work.

Born a century ago, Grandma Moses began her artistic career when she was 77 and is still going strong.

A farm wife, Grandma specializes in rural scenes and while she probably is the best paid of country painters she is not the first to gain recognition for her painting.

Notes and columns printed in weekly newspapers in past decades make mention of this predilection of farm women for painting.

"Grandma Brown painted her barn last week," one item might read.

"Grandma Green is giving her house a new coat of paint," runs another.

"Grandma Black is reported mixing up a batch of paint and plans to start work on the sheds and outbuildings this week," is still another announcement from a by-gone day when city sisters engaged in painting china or slapping out fruit and flowers on canvas or in watercolors.

The items referred to above were chronicled too long ago to make a check so your correspondent is unable to give details. Whether the Grandmas Brown, Green, Black et al, were widows--lone widows, that is--and either had to do the job themselves or hire it done, is now known.

Possibly they were members of families with daughters or daughter-in-laws who took care of the other household chores and with the male members busy from sunup to sundown with farming tasks, the grandmas were the only ones with sufficient leisure time to take care of the paintwork.

The fact is women like to paint. They really do. Men, of course, like to paint too and probably would if it weren't for their natural generosity and chivalry. They know their wives and daughters are so crazy about painting that they resolutely turn their backs on any opportunity to display their talents in this direction so the womenfolk may have the pleasure of doing it.

Some of this trick siding available today eliminates the need of exterior paint, except for the trim, but one can say that more home interiors are being painted now than ever--there are more homes for one thing and for another, less wallpaper is in use.

Paint makers have been doing themselves proud in recent years thru development of pastel shades and a new type of paint smell.

The roller applicator with the long handle that eliminates the need for scaffolding of sorts to reach ceilings has also been a boon to amateur decorators.

Painting has now become so easy (wait now, that's what someone said) that women can give a room a new look thru a coat of paint in the course of her regular work program. Grandma, of course, is painting more than ever but really such endeavors have become so commonplace they are no longer

Whether messing around with housepaint eventually serves to stimulate creative faculties is something this corner can't answer. One could say yes and doubtless bring up a number of cases to substantiate his contention. On the other hand one might say no and cite numerous opinions to back him up, including these memorable lines from "The Face On The Bar-room Floor":

"I was a painter once--not the kind that works on brick or wood but on canvas--and for my age was considered very good..."

Home decorating, exception when professional painters are called in, has become largely a woman's job and even when the pros are employed you know who is the supervisor and has the final word.

One must also add that men are more considerate of women today than they were, and its not just in letting them paint. Your correspondent encountered an example of this change on a trip thru the Arkansas hill country not too long ago.

We were passing by a place when our passenger, a native, called our attention to a woman busily engaged in working up a sizable tree that had been freshly felled.

"Now her husband is a lazy cuss," the passenger said. "That's pretty hard work for his woman, workin' up a tree that big. But there she is and I reckon she'll get the job done. He's probably fishin'."

"Now me'r the boys at our place we don't let ma do any work like that...Oh, if she wants to cut up some light stuff, chunks for the kitchen stove, we let her do that. It's good exercise for her and besides she likes to keep her hand in with usin' an ax."

A true gentleman, I thought, but did not put in into words because such comment while it would have brought pleasure would also have caused my friend to feel embarrassed.

Besides, the thought occurred to me that my friend's house was a one room affair and the only stove it boasted was a kitchen stove.

But I didn't say anything about that either. It was a fine day, sunny and pleasantly warm. It was a day when it was true luxury for one to just follow his own inclinations. If my companion's wife liked to cut up chunks for the kitchen stove one could be glad she had such a fine day for her pleasure.

As for us we were going to have a fine day too--we were going fishing.

Hints For Homeowners

BY JAMES FIZZELL,
ASST. FARM ADVISOR

There are many different types of grass which are sold for lawn use. Many of these grasses are quite desirable, and have a use in the lawn, where-as some are unsuited, some are easy to handle; some require almost constant attention.

The most widely planted lawn grasses in this part of the country are Kentucky blue grass and its varieties Merion blue and Delta Blue.

Kentucky bluegrass is a species which is especially well adapted to this climate, and is often the dominant grass in uncultivated fields. It has a good, dark green color and can easily be identified by its boat-shaped leaf tip. The blue grasses spread by underground rhizomes and thus make a dense sod. A very long-lived perennial, some fields of bluegrass are known to be more than 60 years old.

Bluegrass is primarily a cool weather grass, and in exceptionally hot summers, it may turn brown unless ample water is applied. When properly managed and fertilized, it remains a very attractive green from early spring to very late fall.

The fescues are a large group of grasses in which there are many varieties unsuitable for lawns, but a few varieties which are very useful. The desirable fescues are the fine-leaved varieties, two of the most useful being red fescue and chewing fescue. Red fescue is a creeping grass which spreads by underground stems. Chewing fescue is a tufted or bunch type grass and does not creep. Both the fescues have a bright green color, and are hardy, robust plants. They are especially well adapted to dry, shady places in the lawn.

Some of the tall coarse fescues are being incorporated by seedsmen into inexpensive lawn seed mixtures. These grasses are not desirable in lawns as they do not make a good turf, and are very hard to mow.

Perennial ryegrass is often sown in new lawns and incorporated in grass seed mixtures because of its ability to produce a turf quickly. Ryegrass has a tough stiff leaf, which makes it hard to mow. It is a coarse grass and does not give a good turf in the summer months. For these reasons it is not usually considered desirable for permanent lawns.

The bentgrasses are considered by many people to be difficult to grow; however, there is one bentgrass commonly known as redbtop which is quite the opposite. Redtop has an outstanding ability to

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND

A reading of investment analyses of the business picture, shows most believe that the economy is now in a period of slowing down of activity. As is always the case, there is considerable difference between opinions of the most optimistic and the most pessimistic.

Many point out that effects of a slow down in business are tempered by the fact that industry inventories have not been built up to any degree and are not likely to be cut much from this level. It is also pointed out that the Federal Reserve Board has been quicker to ease credit than in past periods of slow down.

Business literature points out that labor costs have been rising faster than production efficiency and that many items are in a price-cost squeeze. This has reduced profit margins. Firms with reduced profit margins are reluctant to increase spending on plant and equipment unless forced to do so by competitive conditions in the industry.

Easing of credit is predicted to result in an increase in residential building. This field has had considerable political attention to make mortgage money easier.

Most commentators hedge their predictions on general business with comment that the foreign situation could require considerably greater defense spending which would change the picture.

One of the leading commentators stated, "Why don't I get bearish? Just because I think danger signals have become so obvious that Washington will increase its efforts to keep the boom going. Whether it can succeed is a matter of debate, but I don't think there is much argument they are going to try. After a real try it is time enough to consider whether it will be successful."

It is always difficult to predict the business picture accurately on a long range basis. However, few expect any slowing of business to be of serious proportions. Most expect a moderate decline.

Poor's Investment Advisory Service in commenting on recent stock market action wherein there has been small activity on a declining market and some increased activity on an up market grow under a variety of conditions. It is one of the best wet-land grasses, but also resists drought, and will grow on soils so low in lime that other grasses fail. It is ideal for use in lawn mixtures where quick establishment is desired, because it germinates rapidly and does not offer extreme competition to slower growing, more permanent grasses.

The fine bentgrasses, Colonial, creeping and velvet, are the grasses commonly used for golf greens. All the bents have given good results in lawn mixtures, and it is when they are grown alone that difficulty occurs. The heavy turf and close cutting needed to produce the carpet-like effect make lawns of bent very susceptible to diseases.

It is necessary to cut pure stands of bent as often as four times a week to maintain the lawn, and the fertilizer and water required can be quite costly.

Bentgrasses in mixtures are quite desirable.

ket, states, "However, markets that can hold their own with no encouragement frequently do well with only small helpings of this commodity. And the latter seem fairly certain. Production is running enough under consumption to suggest noticeable gains if we have only a seasonal fall pickup. There will be some advantage, too, in the fact the steel strike was hampering things last fall. And there is likelihood that easier money will begin to show up in production plans and totals in time to generate some fourth-quarter lift."

One of the more successful of the Mutual Funds which has specialized in "growth" situations, has this to say of the market in a recent letter to stockholders. "It is easy for the critic, observing the spectacular market of some stocks in the field of electronics, space technology, to wonder why the manager of a mutual fund has not picked up some of this easy money for his stockholders."

The report further states that the manager must consider long range aspects and must be careful not to be lured into quest for "easy money" as risks in this quest are great.

The Upper Room

READ MARK 14:32-42

He said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. (Mark 14:36.)

Prayer has been defined in many ways. Prayer is communion with God; friendship with God; the soul's sincere desire, uttered or unexpressed. Such definitions can be multiplied.

Prayer is the submission to the will of God, at all risks. In the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus prayed the same prayer three times - the prayer that God would take away the cup from Him. That was a cup of shame and most painful death upon the Cross. He prayed to God to remove it. But each time Jesus said, "Nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt." He was obedient to the will of God in the face of agony and sorrow.

He had once said, "I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me." He spent His whole life in doing the will of God. Shall we through prayer submit ourselves to the will of God in all circumstances?

PRAYER: O God, give us courage to run the risks of prayer - the risk of seeing ourselves as we are, the risk of becoming more like Christ, the risk of doing Thy will. In Christ's name, Amen. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Supt. Crackel Makes Annual Report

The ninth annual report of Verne E. Crackel, superintendent of Will county schools, shows that of the $2,087,510 of state aid distributive fund money parcelled out in this county last year, $188,588 came to schools in the Lincoln-Way high school district, including that institution.

Amounts distributed according to the districts were:
Manhattan (No. 114) $11,141.
Reiter school (No. 119), $1,089
Schmuhl (No. 121) $4,588.
New Lenox (No. 122), $83, 120.
Marley, (No. 125) $3, 413.
Weitendorf (No. 154) $946.
Frankfort (No. 157-C) $25,372.
Mokena (No. 159), $46,254.
Summit Hill (No. 161) $978
Lincoln - Way HS (No. 210) $11,685.

In the same area covered by these schools a total of $17,139 in state aid was paid to districts that provide transportation for pupils. The lions share went to Lincoln-Way high, $12,971. Manhattan was allocated $1,656 and New Lenox, $2,512. The other districts do not provide transportation.

State and federal aid for milk and lunches served pupils in these area districts totaled $4,697, distributed as follows: Marley, $176; Manhattan, $885; Schmuhl, $256; New Lenox, $2,645; Weitendorf, $145; Frankfort, $861; Mokena, $977; Lincoln-Way, $4,521.

Summit Hill and Reiter schools do not participate in the lunch and milk program.

The report shows that the total number of grade, high school and college students attending schools within the area was 46,167 for the 1959-60 school year. Of this number 33,218 were enrolled in public schools and 12,949 in parochial schools.

There were 1,730 teachers employed in all schools, 1,214 women and 516 men which were further divided into public and parochial teachers-- 380 men in the public system, 115 in the parochial system; 854 women in the public schools and 331 in parochial schools.

At the close of school last year there were three one-room schools operating; five two-room schools and 13 (grades 1 to 8) districts in the three-room or more class.

There are five community unit districts in the county (Green Garden is in the Peotone unit) three township high schools and one community high school; nine community consolidated districts and one special charter district (Joliet grade). Thus, there was a total of 40 districts operating last year. The number will be less this year.

NI-Gas Completes 75 Mile Pipeline For Fall Use

Northern Illinois Gas Company has completed the installation of its new 75-mile pipeline, begun last May, that links its Troy Grove underground natural gas storage reservoir (north of LaSalle) with the heart of the utility's distribution system near LaGrange.

This will permit NI-Gas to put its Troy Grove underground storage reservoir into use this winter, according to Mathew G. Markle, vice-president of NI-Gas.

Markle said the pipeline initially will transport up to 100 million cubic feet of natural gas from its Troy Grove reservoir to help meet the cold weather demands of more than 400,000 customers who heat with gas. This is about 94,000 more gas heat customers than a year ago.

The pipeline also supplies natural gas to new NI-Gas distribution systems in Leland and Somonauk. These communities initially received gas service Tuesday (Sept. 13) following official turn-on ceremonies. The line also will supply gas for the village of Troy Grove this autumn after NI-Gas finishes installing distribution mains there.

The 30-inch pipeline runs northeast from the reservoir toward North Aurora where it turns east to follow the East-West Tollway to Oakbrook (northwest of LaGrange). Only some minor tests and final clean-up activities remain to be done.

Total bonded indebtedness of the Will county school districts is $21,517,700, the report shows, divided as follows: elementary, $10,902,700; high schools, $4,205,000; community units, $6,410,000. Value of building and sites of all public schools in the county is given as $38,103,508; value of equipment, $3,108,190.

N. Y. Cent. Property Goes Begging As Parking Lot

At its meeting last week, the first of the current season, the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce discussed off-street parking but was opposed to leasing the New York Central property along Kansas street for the purpose.

The businessmen seemed more interested in acquiring parking space on Nebraska street, east of the Hedges Clinic parking lot, it was reported.

The village board has an opportunity to lease the New York Central property for $55 a month but members suggested the matter be referred to the Chamber of Commerce. The village has no parking meters and would have no use for the tract other than to provide parking space for shoppers at public expense, it was pointed out.

The Lions club formerly leased the property and used it for an ice rink for Frankfort skaters. The Chamber of Commerce did take action on the question of welcome signs and rubbish containers. The signs, to be four by eight feet will bid travelers welcome to Frankfort. The Chamber is to have them erected on approaches to the village from any of the directions.

The waste containers are to be 30-gallon drums and will be spotted about the community in the hope of keeping it cleaner.

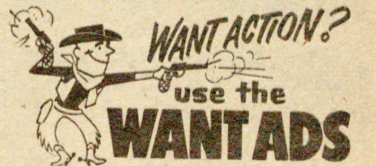

2 Suffer Minor Hurts In Crash

Two young people sustained injuries last Tuesday afternoon when the car in which they were riding careened across the roadway to the opposite shoulder and went into a ditch, rolled over on its top and slid about 50 yards before crashing into a culvert. The accident occurred U.S. 45, one mile north of U.S. 30.

According to reports from State

Trooper James Brockman, the driver, James A. Deyrup, 23, of Urbana, fell asleep at the wheel. First aid was given to the driver for bruises and a possible broken nose while his companion Miss Cynthia Lee of Bellwood, suffered facial abrasions. They were later taken to the Hedges Clinic, Frankfort for treatment.

The car, a 1954 Volkswagen, was completely demolished.

president; Mrs. Victor Peterson secretary; Mrs. Jack Mannell, first vice-president; Miss Kitty Hunckler, second vice-president and Mrs. Ralph Thompson, treasurer.

Refreshments will be served by the eighth grade room mothers. All parents are welcome and urged to attend.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The officers of the PTA executive board have had three meetings this month to plan their program for the coming year. The programs are being planned around the theme "Learning more about home and school discipline."

A legislation chairman has been chosen to keep the membership up to date on any new laws or changes.

A budget is being set up to include an award to pay for refreshments for each meeting and in this way parents will not be asked to donate refreshments. It will also eliminate phone calls for the room mothers.

Ways and Means chairman has set Friday, November 11, as the date for the annual Fun Fair. If this is a successful affair it will be the only money making project for the year. The board is hoping for the cooperation and support of the membership to make all of these plans a success.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

The women of the church met Thursday afternoon, Sept. 15 to plan for their annual turkey supper to be held Tuesday, Oct. 18.

There will be an advance ticket sale. Serving will begin at 5 p.m.

The first monthly school dance sponsored by the Band Boosters will be held Saturday, Oct. 8 for all children in the village from fifth to eighth grades in the Carpenter street school.

The first band concert of the year will be held in December. Due to the crowded condition in storing the uniforms the school board has engaged a local carpenter to build a closet to house 80 uniforms, hats and accessories. At present there are 50 uniforms.

The officers for the coming year are: Charles Neuls, president; Mrs. Wendell Hamilton, vice president; secretary, Mrs. Jeanette Vredenburg and Mrs. Wesley Cappel, treasurer.

PIPELINERS OF ENERGY

Underground Caverns Provide Economical LPGas Storage

Where natural gas pipelines cannot economically go, liquefied petroleum gases — "bottled" in steel pressure tanks — are providing clean, economical, efficient fuel. As a result, LPGas daily is growing in importance for cooking, heating and refrigeration, and as fuel for tractors, trucks, buses and other mechanical equipment.

Butane and propane are liquid only under pressure or refrigeration. To provide economical, high-pressure storage, Texas Eastern has washed "jug wells" from the salt dome near Mont Belvieu, Texas. Here LPGas is accumulated for shipment via the Little Big Inch products pipeline to Todhunter, near Cincinnati, Ohio, where it is stored in underground caverns until needed. These caverns are mined from shale 350 feet below the surface. This storage assures ample supply of LPGas for the growing Midwest market.

LPGas, motor fuel and burner oils, shipped via Little Big Inch, are only a part of the energy products transported by the Texas Eastern systems. Through look-ahead planning, as demonstrated by the Little Big Inch, Texas Eastern moves forward as Pipeliner of Energy to the Nation.

Expect Bulk Of Illinois Corn Will "Beat Freeze"

BY L. H. SIMERL
AGRICULTURE DEPT.
About 96 percent of Illinois corn will "beat the freeze" if the first killing frosts come at the normal dates or later. About 98 percent of the soybeans will mature before the normal dates of killing frosts, according to estimates by the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service and the weather bureau.

The average dates of the first killing frosts range from Oct. 1 in the northwestern corner of the state to Oct. 30 in the extreme southern tip. By killing frost we mean a freeze that will stop the growth of corn and beans over an area as large as a county.

In the northern fourth of Illinois, where planting was delayed most, 89 percent of the corn and beans will be safe from damage if frost comes at the normal time or later. Western Illinois also has much late corn and beans, but this section should have about 10 days more before frost than the northern end of the state.

If killing frosts should come an average of 10 days earlier than usual, about 20 percent of the corn would be injured and 11 percent of the beans would be caught. If the frosts came 20 days early, about 55 percent of the corn and 45 percent of the beans would be nipped.

Killing frosts first invade Illinois from the north, but Lake Michigan holds them back from the counties around Chicago. By Oct. 5 frost has usually covered four or five counties in the northwest corner. The invasion then spreads rapidly, especially down the middle of the state.

By Oct. 10 the frost lines has bulged southward to below LaSalle in the center of the state, and by the 15th it has gone below Springfield. At about the same time, freezing temperatures creep over the Illinois state line from central Indiana.

Other areas of mid-Illinois are more frost resistant. Thus frosts may be later at Kankakee and Galesburg than at Springfield, which is 60 miles farther south. The Champaign-Ford-Douglas-Piatt counties area has been especially frost resistant. The average date of the first killing frost Scout, HU 5-8710; Mrs. William Penn HU 5-8710; or SA 2-2700.

Miss Dotte Jean Anderson entertained a few of her friends Monday night at a buffet supper in her home, prior to her leaving for school on Tuesday. Supper was served at six from the dining room table, that was covered with a green linen cloth. The evening hours were spent in visiting. Guests were, Miss Jean Ann Meyer of Manhattan; Miss Nancy Kepner of Joliet; Miss Doris Smith, Miss Margaret Campbell, Miss Arlene Otis and Miss Evelyn Rowsell.

A large crowd attended the first meeting of the P.T.A. which was held at the Haven school Tuesday, Sept. 13. The color guard of Boy Scout Troop 49 presented the colors and lead the pledge to the flag. The Rev. Alfred Hunter, Pastor of the Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

John Oster, superintendent, introduced faculty members and room mothers. Mrs. Marie Monge, first grade teacher, won the attendance banner.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Lois Lawler introduced William Heidrich as moderator for the panel discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the Parent Teacher Association. A question and answer period followed. Mrs. Paul Martin, Mrs. Wendell Cooper, Hunter Chapman and Mrs. Harry Fox acted as panel members. Mrs. Louis Veronda, director of P.T.A. from Dist. 22, was a guest. A social guest hour followed under the direction of the eight grade Mothers.

in this area is Oct. 20 to 25, or 10 days later than in the Springfield-Lincoln-Peoria area.

A similar frost-resistant island appears in southeastern Illinois from around Olney south to McLeansboro and Carmi. A long string of frost-resistant counties is also found along the southwestern edge of the state, along the Mississippi river, from around Quincy south to Cairo.

Exclusive of the exceptions noted before, the average date of first killing frosts in east central and southern Illinois is Oct. 15 to 20. These are the typical dates for killing frosts over a large and irregular-shaped area extending from just west of Chicago and including Kankakee, Decatur, Lawrenceville, Harrisburg, Mt. Vernon, Vandalia, Carlinville, Macomb and Moinmouth.

Imposes Fine, Jail Sentence On Drunk Driver

Driver of the car that rammed a light truck loaded with migrant workers on U. S. 30 near Lincoln Estates on Aug. 20 has been sentenced to jail for 15 days and fined $200.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day

From the Horse's Mouth

Thoroughbred racing at Saratoga has a pleasantly nostalgic atmosphere, but one item from the "good old days", the passing of which no one misses, is the "ringer" — a good horse run in the identity of a poor one to inflate his odds. It was at Saratoga on August 15, 1946 that the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau demonstrated a new system of horse identification which put an end to the ringer as a racing problem. A volunteer from Alfred G. Vanderbilt's stable, Yankee Dollar, became the first horse tattooed.

Today you can be sure of one thing "straight from the horse's mouth" — his identity. Any horse starting at any one of the TRA's 50 member tracks can open his mouth and tell you who and how old he is. A letter designating the year of birth and four digits from the Jockey Club registration number are indelibly tattooed on the inside of his upper lip.

Today close to 100,000 Thoroughbreds are thus positively identified, not alone for racing but for breeding purposes. Painless and quickly done with specially designed instruments, each letter and numeral is applied in a single operation. Horses have been known to run and win on the same day they were tattooed, and the only complaint in recent years came from an owner who objected to his registration number — 1313.

Mokena, Joliet and Frankfort.

Mrs. Lisette Stellwagen of Joliet, 97 years old, was the oldest member present and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bettenhausen's six week old son of Tinley Park was the youngest.

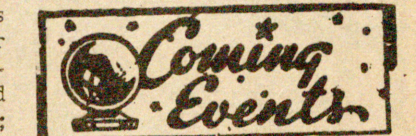

Among the guests included Miss Helen Antonini of Athens, Greece, an exchange student at Joliet Junior college and who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Art Smith in Joliet.

Frank Heisner accompanied his son Dr. and Mrs. Norman Heisner of Wheaton, Friday when they motored to Peoria as the weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. A. Clark; the latter's brother and family.

Mrs. Balbach answers the front door from the master bedroom as daughter Edith watches.

"We've a fast moving family—so thank goodness for our new HOME INTERPHONE!"

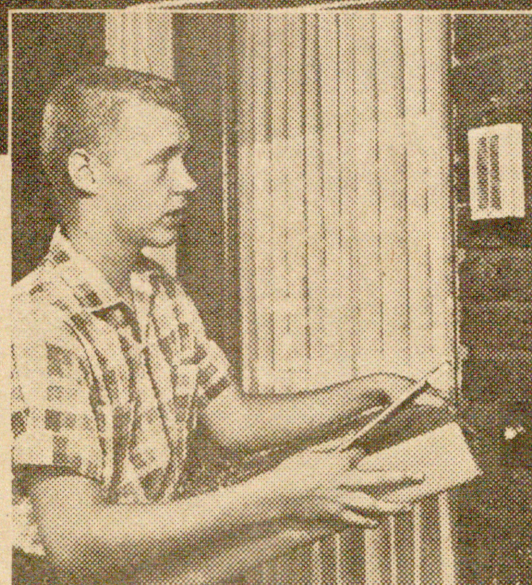

says Mrs. Stanley B. Balbach of Urbana, Illinois

Bustling, busy and happy is the Balbach household at 1005 S. Douglas in Urbana, Illinois. But sometimes Mrs. Balbach isn't quite sure just where all her children are at one time. That's one reason why the Balbachs had a new Home Interphone installed.

Now there are separate speakers next to the extension telephones. One in the den, the basement, the master bedroom, and the girls' room upstairs. And—there's the special convenience of a speaker on the front door which can be answered from any phone in the house.

Mrs. Balbach says: "You can't imagine how many steps a day the Home Interphone saves me. Or how many trips up and down the stairs. When I want to know where one of the children is, I just pick up the phone and talk to them most anywhere in the house. The Interphone is so simple, even my seven year old uses it regularly."

Why not drop in at your Bell Telephone business office and see the Home Interphone? You can try it and see how easy it is to use.

A delivery boy identifies himself to Mrs. Balbach through the speaker on the front door.

Mr. Balbach has a speaker in his den. Young son Jacob is pictured here with him.

Bryon Balbach likes the basement speaker which is conveniently located near his work bench.

Nancy and Barbara, two of the Balbach's three daughters, are easy to locate with the convenient wall speaker in their room.

Sewers 96% Complete At Frankfort

The Frankfort sanitary sewer system is 95% completed on a footage basis, it was reported to the Frankfort village board Monday night by its engineer, Robert Hamilton.

There has been some changes ordered in the electrical hook-up at the sewage treatment plant, which are to be ascribed to the engineer, the contractor or the village board, and this may delay the opening for 10 or 15 days.

Hamilton had figured on the plant being ready for use by Oct. 1. Now it may be about Oct. 15, he told the board. Thus while prospective users cannot make connection with the sewer mains yet, they can get their permits and get the preliminaries out of the way, it was pointed out.

A proposed extension of a 10-inch main under U. S. 45 to pick up prospective customers to the north and east as the section develops was suggested by Hamilton and the board has approved the step.

At the meeting Monday night the board approved payment of $38,000, on account, to D'Andrea Construction Co., which is installing the sewer mains, and a payment of $11,900 to Gaskill & Walton Const. Co., which is building the treatment plant.

The village has received a check from the federal government for $40,800 as part payment of the grant awarded to take care of part of the expense of the treatment system. Hamilton said approximately $18,000 more can be expected from the government when the project is completed.

He figures that by the end of the job the receipts will total approximately $516,600 while the costs of the project will be approximately $513,400. This figure includes all extras and some extensions.

Black And Gold Altar To Dominate Holy Hour Rites

A black and gold marble altar will be the focal point of the diocesan Holy Hour, to be held at the Joliet Memorial stadium Sunday, Sept. 25 from 3 to 4 p.m.

Holding the altar will be a terrace-like two-level platform covered with artificial grass. Gold chrysanthemums will be banked around the altar, with two vases of red roses arranged on each side in front of it.

Nothing will be on the altar itself except black and gold marble candlesticks, a gold tabernacle and the black and gold monstrance which will house the Blessed Sacrament during benediction.

The Blessed Sacrament will be brought to the stadium early in

The bishop's throne will be constructed of solid metal. The canopy over the throne will have a metal frame and the drapes will be green with gold tassels and coats of arms.

Community singing for the Holy Hour will be accompanied by Robert Pirc, organist at the Cathedral of St. Raymond. He will play an organ brought to the stadium especially for the occasion.

Sandburg Downs W. Chicago 19-0

The Sandburg Eagles, one of the south suburban favorites, rolled over W. Chicago 19-0 in a thrilling non-conference contest at Orland Park last Saturday afternoon.

The Eagles defensive line is tough and their backfield with Randy Cornick, Bud Swayne, Jim Jeffries and Roger Brown, the quarterback, has speed and power.

Neither team scored in the opening quarter; however Swayne advanced to the 22-yard line after a yard gain around end. Sandburg was held at the 10 and 2, and W. Chicago punted out of danger to the 42.

Sandburg scored twice in the second quarter when Cornick plunged thru from the 2 yard line.

The second touchdown was added quickly when a W. Chicago fumble was recovered by the Eagles on the 30. Roger Brown passed to Levine for 10 yards. A series of short gains advanced the Eagles to the 14 when Brown passed to Swayne for the score. Conrady converted to put the Eagles ahead 13-0.

Midway in the third quarter, Jeffries broke thru center on a delayed line buck and raced 35 yards for the final score.

Sandburg frosh-soph outscored their counterpart W. Chicago 19-12.

Coach Joe Devine's Eagles are looking forward to their game at Bremen this coming Saturday.

Bremen Defeats Fractional S. 7-0

The Bremen Braves, coached by Larry Callen, lived up to pre-season predictions in turning back a good Fractional South aggregation 7-0 at Calumet City last Friday night.

Both teams battled on even terms in the first quarter play between the 20 yard stripes.

Bullet Phil Tunstall intercepted a pass on the 20-yard line and returned to the 35 to thwart a possible score.

Phil again broke thru on Bremen's 44-yard marker and carried to the Fractional S. 15-yard line.

A series of line smashes by Andy Sciana and Tunstall of the Braves ended when Sciana plunged over from the three-yard line, Tunstall converted and Bremen was on top 7-0.

Fractional S. kicked to Tunstall opening the second half. Tunstall picked up the ball on the one yard line and came roaring down the sidelines for 41 yards. Hillenbrand, only defense man left, made the tackle. The Braves were on the move again, but John Mannaioni's attempted pass was intercepted.

Tunstall, however, regained possession on a leaping catch of a pass in the 50 and returned for a 15-yard gain. Bremen lost possession when Mannaioni fumbled on a rollout on the 50. Hillenbrand completed two passes to Savage for 23 yards, but their attack bogged down.

Bremen moved slowly forward after a series of short gains until speedy half-back Tunstall broke thru to his left and skirted down the sidelines for 44 yards, planting the ball on Fraction's 18 when the game ended.

Bremen frosh-soph captured the curtain raiser 14-12.

The Braves host Carl Sandburg Saturday Sept. 24, at 2 p.m.

Sportsmen Aux. To Sponsor Breakfast Sunday

The Sportsmen Recreation club auxiliary of New Lenox will sponsor a country breakfast Sunday, Sept. 25 at the Lions Den from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The menu will consist of home fried potatoes, sausage, eggs, homemade coffee-cake, rolls, orange juice and coffee.

This Saturday the Knights will be hosts to Evergreen Park, the first conference game for both squads. Last Saturday Evergreen Park lost to Lockport, a South Suburban conference member, 14 to 0.

SPORT SIDELINES

BY AL STUART

The Southwest Suburban football league appears to be a major power in Chicago area sports. A review of the season's opening games reveal a 7 won and 1 loss record.

Larry Callan, Bremen High coach, thinks the game this coming Saturday between Bremen and Carl Sandburg will go along way in determining the conference championship.

He has in Phil Tunstall a strong and speedy back who is capable of breaking any game wide open. Andy Sciana is another back to watch. If he gets wild, watch out.

Coach Joe Devine of Sandburg can be proud of his capable line and balanced backfield, good passing, fine running and a driving fullback. This game should be a thriller.

Lions Start Club Year

The Frankfort Lions club, which did not meet during the summer months, began its 1960-61 club season Tuesday night (Sept. 20) with a dinner at 6:30 o'clock in Arch Inn.

Lynn Kohlhaugen, president, was in charge of the meeting. The executive committee which met several times in the summer, has developed a program which has been offered to the members for their consideration.

One of the projects of the Frankfort Lions this year is slated for October--the annual fund raising campaign to carry on with aid to the blind and other sight-saving work.

Sometimes the club has sold crackerjack for this purpose, and sometimes brooms but this year it will conduct a candy sale.

All types of candy will be available, from hard and plain to fancy and soft.

The Lions sight-saving program has been its major welfare project since the Lions were organized and thousands of persons have been helped as a result, statistics show.

Details of the candy sale at Frankfort are being worked out and will be announced later.

At the meeting Tuesday club members watched a movie on "The Building of the Illinois Tollway."

Farm Taxes In Illinois Hit New High

Taxes paid on Illinois farm land climbed to a record high in 1959, a University of Illinois professor of agricultural law reported this week. N. G. P. Krausz says Illinois landowners paid out $118.7 million, or 14 percent of their net income.

The 1959 real estate tax was 3.7 percent above that of 1958 and about four times as much as that of 1940. The national increase from 1958 to 1959, however, averaged 8 percent.

Illinois topped all other corn-belt states in tax levy per acre. While Illinois landowners paid $3.93 an acre, other corn-belt landowners averaged only $2.00 an acre. The national average is $1.11. Four northeastern states had higher per acre taxes than Illinois.

High value of Illinois land does not account entirely for the higher taxes. When Krusz computed the taxes on the basis of $100 value, Illinois tax remained the highest in the corn belt and 45 percent above the U. S. average.

Public school take the largest portions of real estate tax revenues, Krausz points out. Rising enrollment creates demands for new schools, additional staff and greater operating revenues. More increases in real property taxes can be expected as long as the tax structure remains basically the same, he concludes.

Social Security

Exhibit At

Farm Show

How long do I have to work under social security to qualify for social security benefits? How many years will be used in figuring my social security benefits?

"The answers to these questions are not what most farmers think they are", said Harold Whiteside, manager of the Joliet social security office. The correct answers will be available at the Farm Progress show as well as any other information farmers may want about social security.

One of the important features of the social security exhibit at the Farm Progress show will be a social security calculator which was designed by William Tipsword, field representative in the Joliet office. A man or a woman can turn the dial on the calculator to the year of his or her birth and the answers to the above two questions will be shown. According to Whiteside, who made a survey of what people know about social security recently, these two questions are the most misunderstood things about the program. Another feature is a device called a Social Security I, Q. It is "played" by pressing "true" or "false" electric buttons to find out the correct answers to a series of questions listed. The average score is about 50%.

Up-to-date leaflets about the provisions of the law will be free to everyone. These will include the changes recently voted by congress. Representatives will be there to answer questions.

The social security exhibit will be on "Main street" near the model home at the Farm Progress show. Site of the show is the Donald Baltz farm eight miles west of Joliet on U. S. Route 52. The show opened yesterday and ends tomorrow.

The Belgian town of Virton is famed for its "pate de viande"—or meat loaf.

Children Don't Outgrow

Crossed Eyes, Says Doctor

Should parents worry if a baby's eyes appear to cross? Do crossed-eyed children outgrow the condition? What effect does this condition have on a child when it is not corrected?

"The eyes of infants for the first six months do not co-ordinate and often cross. This is normal and need not be a source of worry", according to Derrick Vail, M.D., of Northwestern University, author of THE TRUTH ABOUT YOUREYES.

Don't assume, as many do, that a child will just "outgrow" crossed eyes. He won't. On the contrary, vision in the crossed eye may fail to develop, and the child will grow up without useful sight in that eye. In later years, the eye may even straighten, the person will appear normal, and yet be partially blind—often without knowing it. Because of this possibility, whenever parents notice or have the slightest suspicion of any abnormal eye condition, they are urged to seek immediate professional eye care.

If he receives treatment while still young — and the younger the better — the vision damaged by crossed eyes can usually be restored, and the eyes brought back to a normal position.

No new miracle is required. Vision can be corrected and crossed eyes straightened by methods that have now become routine after being used successfully year-in and year-out — in thousands of cases.

Parents should understand that there is more than one way to treat crossed eyes successfully and should not be confused when they hear of another method than the one being used for their child. As long as the child is under the care of a competent specialist, they should have confidence that the method he chooses is best for their child. But one word of caution: Avoid anyone who advertises and especially who claims a secret method!

The Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness urges all parents of cross-eyed children not already under the care of a competent eye specialist, to seek such care. It is further recommended that every child be given a complete eye examination at age three to four, because sometimes the child may not be using one eye even though there is no obvious crossing. If examined at this age, the child has the best chance of having normal vision by the time he enters school. This is the age at which the brain can be retrained to use the two eyes together again after they have been straightened. This very hard to do after the child enters school.

Everything stays clean twice as long in a flameless electric kitchen

There's no flame to create dirt that smudges walls or ceilings. A clean-cooking electric range cooks without soiling, keeps your kitchen clean about twice as long. Result: you spend half as much time and money on washing and decorating.

Heats food—not you. A flameless electric range transfers heat to the pan and directly into foods—not your kitchen. The oven is insulated on all six sides (not just five). Hardly any heat escapes. Your kitchen stays at least ten degrees cooler.

When you build, buy an appliance, or remodel your kitchen, keep in mind the clean, fume-free cooking you get in a flameless electric range.
